

Gregory E. Schuster Director – Brokerage Services

Gregory Schuster joined Burns & Scalo Real Estate Services, Inc. in 2005 to forefront the third party tenant representation division of the firm. Gregory has successfully leased over 500,000 square feet of office, retail and industrial properties and has performed for both landlords and tenants based in the region and across the country.

Gregory received his Bachelor of Science degree from the School of Architecture from the Pennsylvania State University in 1985. After a successful tenure with Burt Hill Kosar Rittelmann and Associates, a premier architectural and engineering firm, he was invited to join A.R. Building Company as their Vice President to spearhead both land acquisitions and design and marketing efforts for a new single-family home division. Gregory has also gained considerable experience with property management and construction and has been responsible for operating and managing a diverse portfolio of real estate before getting into real estate brokerage on a full-time basis.

As a previous member of the Cushman & Wakefield Alliance, Gregory has teamed up with the industry's best and brightest. He also enjoys ongoing relationships with national brokerage firms and continues to be referred by CRESA Partners, Julien Studley, Staubach Company and others not maintaining offices in Pittsburgh.
